BEST TRAP FOR SPARROWS KIDS A PEST AND HELPS REDUCE COST OF LIVING

C. E. Bird and his sparrow trap.

C. E. Bird, of Savannah, Ga., has arranged an ingenious trap for sparrows that helps rid the neighborhood of the small, noisy birds and also provides meat for poultry flocks. A device that Bird declares is too commonly overlooked. The trap will capture enough sparrows in a week for three pigs and at no considerable cost, as the corn that induces them to capture is glued there and lasts quite a while.

Heart to Heart Talk

This is a store of action as well as words—a store where no false note is struck to inspire a confidence which may afterward be shaken perhaps through our failure to live up to the proposed purpose and intent.

Only by doing can we expect to proceed and progress. Performance is the thing that counts. Actively accomplished. Inaction means reaction. To carry out the thought means to carry forward the business. Unless this store inspires confidence by its words—and maintains it by action afterward—it is on the wrong track and had best turn back without delay. This is a store of action as well as words.

HOW MRS. BEAN MET THE CRISIS

Carried Safely Through Change of Life by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Nashville, Tenn.—"When I was going through the Change of Life I had a tumor as large as a child's head. The doctor said it was three years coming and gave me medicine for it until I was called away from the city for some time. Of course I could not go to him then, so my sister-in-law told me that she thought Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound would cure it. It helped both the Change of Life and the tumor and when I got home I did not need the doctor. I took the Pinkham remedies until the tumor was gone, the doctor said, and I have not felt since. I tell every one how I was cured. If this letter will help others you are welcome to use it."

—Mrs. E. H. BEAN, 525 Joseph Avenue, Nashville, Tenn.
Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, a pure remedy containing the extractive properties of good old fashioned roots and herbs, meets the needs of woman's system at this critical period of her life. Try it.
If there is any symptom in your case which puzzles you, write to the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass.

Kitchen Condemns Wilson.—Only a short time ago Representative Kitchen, Democratic leader of the House, paid his respects to the president, and incidentally to Josephus Daniels who, as everyone knows, is merely one of the mouth-pieces of Woodrow Wilson. Said Mr. Kitchen, "I believe I said it was criminal for this House to vote upon a proposition that would take hundreds of millions of dollars needlessly out of the treasury through the proposition presented by the gentleman from Pennsylvania. And yet in two short months the chairman of the committee on naval affairs, the secretary of the navy and the president and most of my fellow Democrats want me to get up here on this floor and eat my words, and say that the program of the gentleman from Pennsylvania and the Republicans, which they induced me then to denounce as criminal recklessness, is now the very program of virtue and patriotism." This was, it will be understood, the naval program which the Republicans urged in the House and which Mr. Kitchen as he says, was induced by the president and Daniels to denounce as "criminal," which the Senate later, under the lash of the president adopted and the House agreed to, and which Mr. Daniels promptly proclaimed to the country as a great achievement of the administration.

Still Jumping Taggart.—Some of Senator Tom Taggart's Democratic colleagues have been jumping on him pretty severely for his criticism of Democratic extravagance, but the figures submitted by the Indiana Senator seem to afford good ground for his animadversions. He cites, for instance, the case of the postoffice at Falmouth, Ky. The town has a population of 1,274. The appropriation is $20,000 and the cost of maintenance, bearing interest on the investment at $1.14 and including other necessary expenses, will be $3,742 a year, or nearly $3.00 a piece for every soul in the town. Mr. Taggart quotes similar figures in the cases of Roseville, Ga., and Hazard, Ky. He shows $25,000 appropriated for Mr. Olive, N. C., with a population of 1,971; $25,000 for Huntington, Tenn., with a population of 1,112; $40,000 for Clear Water, Fla., with a population of 1,171. "If this bill succeeds in getting through Congress, declared Senator Taggart, 'the president should come to the rescue of the treasury and veto it at once.' Instead of squandering money in catching cattle ticks, killing coveys, poisoning ground squirrels, poisoning ducks, treating goats suffering from Malta fever, sending out useless garden and vegetable seeds, mowing pork barrel river and harbor bills and pork barrel public building bills," says Senator Taggart, "would it not be better to get down to bed rock economy and cut these useless expenditures off and save the people from the never-ceasing visits of the tax gatherer?" Mr. Taggart's total failure to grasp the fundamentals of Democratic policy is explained by his Democratic colleagues by the fact that he has been a member of the Senate only since April.

Feldt McCombs.—There is a good deal of sympathy in New York for William F. McCombs. Mr. McCombs was active worker long before the nominating convention of 1912, and as national chairman during that campaign, accomplished the election of Woodrow Wilson to the presidency. Now Mr. McCombs is Democratic candidate for the Senate from New York and the entire power of the administration is being exerted against him. As is the case with so many others who have helped Woodrow Wilson, McCombs has served his purpose and is now being treated as an outsider. McCombs has refused to bow to the dictatorship of Crown Prince McAdoo.

hence his unpopularity. But his friends insist that the opposition to him stands out preeminent among their numerous instances of Dr. Wilson's ingratitude.
